Photographs in the “Tree Nose” section of Notes and Queries are by Tina Negus with the exception of the ones from St Bertrand de Comminges. The photograph of a roof boss with angels from Chichester Cathedral was taken by Ruth Wylie. I have tried to indicate the provenance of the other photographs where possible, but where there is no indication, they were probably taken by my husband or by me.

Finally, grateful thanks to my long-suffering husband, Robin Lees, without whom this site would not exist.
